

Bible Story #3

Jesus and the Blind Beggar

As Jesus was going out from Jericho with His disciples and a large crowd of people, a blind beggar known as Bartimaeus was sitting by the road. Bartimaeus means "son of Timaeus." And when this blind beggar heard that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by, he began to cry out, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me; help me!"

Many of the people rebuked him and told him to be quiet, but he kept shouting out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." And they called the blind man saying to him, "Take courage, cheer up, on your feet! He's calling for you." Throwing off his outer garment, he jumped to his feet and came to Jesus.

Jesus said to him, "What do you want Me to do for you?" And the blind man said to Him, "Master, I want to see." And Jesus said to him, "Go your way; your faith has made you well." And immediately he received his sight and began following Jesus along the road.
